

Tell me a little bit about the opening of this story.	Tell me a bit about the conclusion of this story.	Tell me a bit about the structure of this story. How does it move from beginning to end?
Where does your story take place? What can you tell me that is interesting about the setting?	Who is the most interesting character in this story? What is he or she like?	Why might readers like this story? You may think about the plot or the way it is written.
What do you find interesting about the vocabulary used in this story? Are there any interesting words or groups of words? Do the interesting words belong to a particular word class, like nouns, verbs or adjectives.	Which is your favourite sentence in this story and why? What can you say about the way sentences are used in this story?	Which one of these words do you think best describes the tone of voice of this story? Humorous, chilling, gloomy, matter of fact, solemn, upbeat, gentle, cheerful, harsh, joyful, reflective. (If none of these words fit, then come up with one of your own.)

