

Conjunctions - and, but, or	I picked up the cigar box and took it to my great-grandfather.
Conjunctions - when, if, be- cause, that	I was fascinated when he told me about his life.
Nouns -adjectives - prepositions	There was a huge, terrifying storm on the boat.
Staying in past or present tense	I went to the shelf and looked for something interesting.
Verbs	I found the matchboxes in the box.
Capital letters, full stops ? and !	I was amazed at his stories!
Commas in lists	In the matchboxes were olive stones, photographs, bottle tops and much more.
Apostrophes for contraction	I'm really glad that I met him at last.
Speech	“I wish I could write a diary,” I said.

Fronted adverbials and comma	On the ship, there was a terrifying storm.
Apostrophes for singular and plural possession	My great grandad's face was kind. The boys' stones flew through the air and hit my great-grandfather.	