

What does a whale shark eat? Tick 3

small fish

seaweed

plankton

squid

coral

	TRUE	FALSE
The mother whale shark's eggs hatch inside her.
It lives in cool waters.
It is the largest fish in the world.

Number these facts 1- 4 in the correct order to show how the Great White Shark gets its food.

Fact	Number 1-3
It returns later to feed on its prey undisturbed.
It injures the seal so it cannot swim.
It smells its prey from a distance.
It attacks a seal ferociously.

Look at the section Whale Sharks. Tick 1

What does the word plankton mean?

small ocean-dwelling organisms
small green plants
broken up shells on the sea bed

Draw lines to match the fact to the correct animal

Fact	Animal
Has 300 rows of tiny teeth	Whale Shark
It is the largest shark.	Hammerhead Shark
Their favourite food is stingray.	Great White Shark

Complete the sentence. Tick 1

The Great White Shark is capable of.....

swimming long distances.
eating seals whole.
attacking humans.

Look at Hammerhead Sharks. Find and copy the word that means find their prey.

-

Look at Hammerhead Sharks. Give three special ways in which it uses its head.

-

Find and copy 2 key features of a Great White Shark.

-

Find and copy 3 animals that a Great White Shark will eat.

-

Which phrase best describes the Whale Shark? Tick one powerful predator oddest looking gentle giant

Draw lines to match the fact with the correct shark.

Fact	Shark
It grows up to 20 m long	Whale Shark
Has 10 different species.	Great White Shark
It can live between 30 and 70 years.	Hammerhead Shark

Write the name of the correct shark

Fact	Shark
Can be found in the Pacific, Atlantic and Indian Oceans.
Swim in schools of up to 100 fish.
Swims with its mouth wide-open.

Why might a Whale Shark occasionally run into ships?

-

Why might a Great White Shark attack a human?

-

How does a Hammerhead Shark locate its prey more effectively?

-

Why are the numbers of Great White Sharks dropping?

-

Which shark has a spotted pattern?

-

True or False

Fact	TRUE	FALSE
The Whale Shark has triangular teeth.
The Great White Shark weighs more than 2 tonnes.
The Hammerhead Shark lives in oceans up to 1220m deep.		