

Once Upon A Blue Moon- Early Years Foundation Stage

Communication and Language	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Small world play - Re-cap the story once it's finished - Predict what it might be about / what might happen from a still - Comprehension questions
Personal, Social, Emotional Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Axis of emotion - Do you think they're friends? - How could they have made friends?
Physical Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Make a Blue Moon and characters with play dough or plasticine (or anything else really) - Pack and healthy lunch for them - Play with a ball or pebble wearing a character mask you've made
Literacy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Stills with speech bubbles for children to write - Caption writing - Label writing - Postcard from the Blue Moon - Packing list to go to the Blue Moon - Instructions for making the rocket or camera work
Numeracy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Build a rock tower using X number of rocks or pieces of plasticine - Build a rock tower and discuss how tall or short it is - Rocket counting backwards from 20 to 0 - Discuss the time of day - Make plasticine rocks and weigh them - Addition and subtraction using rocks - Who has more / fewer rocks
Understanding The World	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Where is it set? How do you know? - What transport could you use to get there? Why not a boat? - Make your own junk modelled camera - Make a Blue Moon and photograph it - What devices can you use to take photos? - What technology is in the rocket? - Find out about the historical moon landing
Expressive Arts and Design	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Create a shoebox Blue Moon - Junk model the characters and rocket - Make rock towers - Make a character mask - Paint or decorate rocks